

TRIP OVERVIEW

Discover the unspoilt natural beauty of Lan Ha Bay on this truly unique swimming holiday in one of Vietnam's most picturesque locations. Situated adjacent to Ha Long Bay, Lan Ha Bay is a much quieter location, which covers an area of more than 7,000 hectares – most of which is covered by emerald water and scattered with 300 towering limestone islets and karst islands.

Often referred to as 'Ha Long Bay's Twin,' Lan Ha Bay is ideal for open water swimming as it has much less boat traffic. The largest island in Lan Ha Bay, and our base for the duration of our trip, is the rugged, jungle-filled Cat Ba Island. The island is famous for its history during the Vietnam War and boasts a large array of flora and fauna which is protected by its status as a National Park.

Our accommodation for the week is the stunning Cat Ba Paradise Hotel, situated on the water's edge in the heart of Cat Ba Town. The hotel includes a spa, restaurant, rooftop plunge pool and bar, which offers panoramic views of Cat Ba Town and the ocean bay in front of us.

WHO IS THIS TRIP FOR?

This trip is designed for those who want to combine spectacular swimming among the karst islands and limestone outcrops of Lan Ha Bay with optional hikes around the area's dramatic landscapes and a taste of Vietnamese culture. Swims include a mix of coastal exploration and point-to-point crossings. The geography of the bay means it is usually possible to find sheltered waters to avoid any chopiness.

Swimmers should have a basic understanding of open water swimming and be capable of completing the average swim distance of 2.5km prior to the start of the trip. The average daily swim distance is around 4km (split over a minimum of two swims).

We have given this trip a 'Moderate' grading. Most swimmers comfortable in the open water will be able to take part and enjoy one of these trips.

LOCATION SUMMARIES

Vietnam is an increasingly popular tourist destination, famous for its history, culture, food, and dramatic landscapes. The country enjoys a very long coastline on the South China Sea, teasing many different swimming adventures, especially with its balmy climate and warm waters.

Our adventure is set in the north Vietnam, starting in the capital, Hanoi, before heading east to the coast and our base on Cat Ba Island.

Hanoi

Our trip starts at the Hanoi Opera House, in central Hanoi, just south of the city's Old Quarter. Hanoi is a city with a long and interesting history, and we recommend staying for an extra day or two before or after your trip to explore this city. Stroll around Hoan Kiem Lake, sample the fantastic street food and excellent coffee on offer, and enjoy the sights and sounds of this bustling city.

Cat Ba Island

Cat Ba is the largest of the 367 dramatic and rugged islands that make up the Cat Ba archipelago on the south-eastern edge of Ha Long Bay in Northern Vietnam. Approximately half of the island is covered by a National Park, which is home to the highly endangered Cat Ba langur. The wide variety of natural ecosystems, both marine and terrestrial, have led to incredibly high rates of biodiversity. Types of natural habitats found on Cat Ba archipelago include limestone karsts, tropical limestone forests, coral reefs, mangrove and seagrass beds, lagoons, beaches, caves, and willow swamp forests.

Ha Long Bay and Lan Ha Bay

No trip to Vietnam is complete without a visit to the Ha Long Bay region. This region is actually made up of three provinces - Ha Long, Bai Tu Long and Lan Ha. Each province boasts the same scenic beauty, with hundreds of scattered, limestone-infused islands scattered through the stunning emerald waters. Around 200 species of fish, 400 species of arthropod and numerous hard and soft coral live in the waters here, while larger marine animals include seals and three species of dolphin.

TRIP SCHEDULE

Start Point	Hanoi Opera House (Front Entrance), Hanoi, Vietnam
Start Time	10:30 on Day 1
Finish Point	Hanoi Opera House, Hanoi, Vietnam
Finish Time	17:00 on Day 7

Please note that the below daily itineraries are an example of the swims that may take place during the course of your trip, however, actual swim locations and distances will vary according to local weather and sea conditions. Your SwimTrek guides and local boat pilot will determine the most suitable swim locations each day and will communicate the plan with all guests as soon as possible.

Day 1

Whether you are staying in Hanoi prior to your trip or arriving on Day 1, you will need to make your way to the front entrance of the Hanoi Opera House at 10:30 to meet the rest of your group. We then transfer you over land and sea to our hotel on Cat Ba Island which takes approximately five hours. Once we arrive and have had a chance to settle in, we'll take a short ride to the local beach for our acclimatisation swim. This is an excellent chance to get familiar with the local conditions before we head back to the hotel for our welcome meeting and then first dinner of the trip in Cat Ba town.

Day 2

This morning we head straight out into Lan Ha Bay for our first swim among the limestone islets. Leaving Ben Beo port, we travel past traditional floating fishing villages, where many families still live and work today. We arrive at the Nam Cat islands where we carry out our first swim. On the way, we pass Castaway Island and Moody Beach, finishing at Turtle Island (Hòn Rùa). It is a magical place to finish our first full swim of the trip.

After taking lunch on-board the vessel prepared by our boat crew, we'll head over to Viet Hai Port, where we will take a scenic walk through the forest to a small village. After a quick break we take an electric car back to our boat and then continue on to our afternoon swim. We move further into Lan Ha Bay, cutting into a series of small bays, before finishing our swim at Temple Beach.

Day 3

We set out in the morning to continue island-hopping in the bay, dropping into some of Lan Ha Bay's deserted beaches as we go. In the morning, we swim across six idyllic yellow sand beaches, before completing a crossing over to Ba Trai Dao – or Three Peaches Island – where we explore some of Lan Ha bay's stunning arch formations.

After lunch on the boat, we head off from Ba Trai Dao, exploring some of the bay's hidden caves and lakes! We finish the swim off on one of Ba Trai Dao's many sandy beaches.

Day 4

This morning we head out to Cat Dua Island (also known as Monkey Island), where we will undertake a circumnavigation of the island. Take the time to look out for black kites, hawks, hornbills, and cuckoos which can be present above the water. We'll then relax and have lunch on the boat after our morning swim is complete.

After getting back on board we return back to our hotel, where the afternoon is yours to do what you wish. You may wish to explore Cat Ba Town, visit the national park, undertake the spectacular cliff-side walkway, or just relax at the rooftop pool at our accommodation.

Day 5

Today we start travelling further afield and make our way out to the bay's eastern flank and Dau Be Island – the most remote part of Lan Ha Bay. There are some wonderful swim throughs along these coastlines, as well as sea stacks and high cliff walls. There are hundreds of swimming options and we will pick the best one based on local conditions.

After lunch on our boat, we will head off to complete a swim along the cliffs of Hang Trai. These dramatic cliff walls are home to caves, hidden inland lakes, beaches and limestone outcrops.

Day 6

On our last full swimming day, we head off towards Hang Sang, the most Northerly part of Lan Ha Bay. From here, we will work our way down the coastline, exploring bays as well as entering an inland lake. Keep your eyes peeled for monkeys! We finish the swim at Hòn Bút (otherwise known as Candle Island), one of the thinnest limestone stacks in the whole bay.

After lunch, we head back closer to home, to Bai Lut (flooded beach). This tiny beach joins together two limestone islands and completely disappears at high tide. After stopping on the beach to enjoy the stunning views out over the bay, we swim along a series of bays to finish at an abandoned beach resort.

Day 7

On our final morning, there is a chance for a pre-breakfast swim before we take a walk up to Hospital Cave, located in the National Park, which was built as a bomb-proof hideout as well as a hospital for Vietnam Soldiers.

This is a fantastic final activity on an amazing SwimTrek adventure before we transfer everybody back to Hanoi Opera House in central Hanoi. You can then extend your Vietnamese experience on the mainland, or make your own way to the airport for onward travel.

TRIP GRADING

We have given this trip a 'Moderate' grading. Most swimmers comfortable in the open water will be able to take part and enjoy one of these trips.

Swimming Conditions

Swimming in the sea is a fantastic experience, however you should be aware that certain marine life such as jellyfish, sea lice, sea urchins and coral could be present during the swims. In all cases we will work on reducing your contact with these creatures, however, if you suffer from anaphylaxis, please consult the office prior to booking.

Due to the runoff from the lush, green islands which make up this beautiful corner of the world, water clarity is sometimes lower than in other open ocean locations, however, it is still suitable for swimming.

Weather Caveat

For safety reasons, we rely on decent weather conditions when carrying out our swims. As a consequence, open water swimming holidays require a certain degree of on-trip flexibility which can result in changes to the planned itinerary. These changes often add a touch of uniqueness to your trip and will be communicated to you by your SwimTrek guides as quickly as possible.

GETTING THERE

Vietnam has two main international airports, Tan Son Nhat Airport (SGN) in Ho Chi Minh City and Noi Bai Airport (HAN) in Hanoi, which are both serviced by a large selection of domestic and international flights.

The easiest way to get to the start of your trip is to fly into Hanoi and then catch a taxi or public transport to the city centre to meet your group at the Hanoi Opera House on Day 1.

As SwimTrekkers come from all over the world, and join our swimming holidays in numerous destinations, we don't currently offer flights as part of our SwimTrek packages. We do however want to do as much as we can to ensure that our guests get the best deals when travelling to one of our trips so check out our SwimTrek Flight trips page on the website.

Transport from Noi Bai Airport to Hanoi Opera House

The easiest option, a journey from Noi Bai Airport to Hanoi Opera House in the city centre by taxi will take approximately 30 minutes and will cost approximately 400,000 VND. Make sure you go to the official taxi rank located outside and take a metered taxi. An additional 10,000-15,000 VND will be added to your fare, but that is normal and the best way to travel by taxi. Do not accept offered of a taxi or car from elsewhere. Alternatively, airport minibus shuttles operate from the airport bus ranks into the city centre, as well as public buses.

SwimTrek Transfer from Hanoi Opera House to Cat Ba Paradise Hotel

A designated SwimTrek transfer departs Hanoi Opera House at 10:30 on Day 1 of your trip. The average cost for a meal in Cat Ba is around 100,000 – 300,000 VND per portion.

Please note, they are not always able to cater for those with allergens/ If you have a severe food allergy, you must inform customer team via info@swimtrek.com and have any relevant medication on you or close by at all times.

For more information, please visit our food and drink page on the website.

Money, Extra Expenses & Tipping

You should bring extra money with you to cover such items as drinks, breakfasts, evening meals, entertainment, and souvenirs. The local currency in Vietnam is Vietnam Dong (VND). While USD is widely accepted, the conversion rate that is offered is usually poor, which makes it cheaper to pay in VND in most locations. While there is one ATM in Cat Ba town, please note that debit and credit cards are not widely accepted in Vietnam and it is suggested that carry enough cash with you for your daily expenses.

In some countries tipping (gratuities) is not part of the culture. In others, it has become an expected norm. We believe that tipping is done entirely at your discretion. If you have been provided with excellent service, it may be something you wish to do. Your SwimTrek guides can advise on local norms for service providers like boat crew, waiters, or taxis. Nothing is expected for your SwimTrek guides, but many groups like to present something to the guides at the end of the trip.

Responsible Travel

SwimTrek is conscious of the importance of protecting the world's natural wonders. We are acutely aware of our responsibility to not only take care of the natural environments which we are lucky enough to explore, but also to educate our guests about the importance of conservation efforts and responsible tourism. It's for this reason that we have worked so closely with our partners to ensure that our trips are conducted in the most responsible and sustainable way possible, working tirelessly to minimise the impact of our presence on local marine life and the natural habitat.

For more information, please visit our Responsible Travel page on the website.

Passports and Visas

Non-residents of Vietnam require a full passport to enter the country, which should be valid for six months beyond the expected length of stay.

Visitors from a number of countries may enter visa-free, and stay for a certain number of days, including British Citizen passport holders and guests from 21 other countries. For information on your visa requirements, visit <https://vietnam.travel/plan-your-trip/visa-requirements>. If you do require a visa, you can apply for one online here. The visa is valid for 30 days and costs USD25. Please note there is a 3-day processing time and you will receive a code by email to print your visa.

For citizens not included in the visa free allocation or for those who want to either enter Vietnam multiple times during their visa period or extend their stay beyond the 30-day e-visa limit, please contact your nearest Vietnamese embassy for further information.

Please note that visa regulations are subject to change and we advise that you check your own visa requirements prior to travel.

Travel Insurance

We consider comprehensive travel insurance to be essential, and we strongly recommend that you purchase insurance which includes, but is not limited to, cover for illness, accident, emergency repatriation, ambulance, air ambulance, helicopter rescue services, cancellation, lost luggage, and delays. Your travel insurance should also cover you for open water swimming and any other activity listed in your trip itinerary (including races and competitions, where applicable). Please read your policy details carefully and remember to take them with you on your trip for your own reference. For further information, please visit our Travel Insurance page on the website.
