

TRIP OVERVIEW

This introductory Greek island swimming holiday gives you the opportunity to explore the beautiful volcanic coastline of Milos. Featuring spectacular sea caves, tunnels and breathtaking arches, Milos and its surrounding islands are an open geological museum just waiting to be explored.

The beautiful views and incredible geology that you will experience on this trip, both above and below the water, are some of the most spectacular that exist anywhere in the Mediterranean. From the deep, clear waters of the Aegean Sea to the white sand beaches and imposing rock formations that define the islands in this corner of the world, Milos is an idyllic location for open water swimmers.

Accompanied by our very own SwimTrek yacht throughout the week, this trip features a combination of stunning coastal swims and adventurous crossings to both inhabited and uninhabited islands. Combined with the spectacular island landscapes and the laid-back Greek culture, this SwimTrek adventure embraces the sense of exploration and discovery that we live by every day.

WHO IS THIS TRIP FOR?

This trip is designed for swimmers who enjoy both coastal swims and crossings as well as exploring sea caves, tunnels, and arches while swimming shorter daily swims. The trip is ideal for swimmers with a little less experience in the open water or who are looking to enjoy some additional time out of the water.

Swimmers should also have a basic understanding of open water swimming and be capable of completing the average daily swim distance of around 1.5 km prior to the start of the trip. The average daily swim distance is around 3km (split over a minimum of two swims).

We have given this trip a 'Leisurely' grading designed for people who want to swim at a more relaxed pace and enjoy the scenery.

LOCATION SUMMARIES

Milos

According to mythology, the island was named after its first inhabitant, Milos, who was the son of a Cyprian royal family, sent by the goddess Aphrodite to inhabit the island after his parents' death. Milos is the most south-western island in the Greek Cyclades.

Pollonia

Pollonia is a picturesque fishing village on the northeast tip of Milos directly opposite the island of Kimolos. It's built around a sheltered harbour with traditional whitewashed, cubic houses.

Kimolos

Separated from Milos by the Kimolos Strait, Kimolos is a volcanic island full of natural caves.

Polyaigos

At a distance of 1½km to the northeast of Kimolos lies the island of Polyaigos, which translates to "island with a lot of goats." With an area of approximately 18 km², it is one of the largest uninhabited islands in the Mediterranean.

Kleftico

A spectacular complex of cliffs, sea passages, tunnels and arches. The name comes from the Greek word “kleftes”, meaning thief, as legend says it was a popular haven for pirates in the middle ages.

TRIP SCHEDULE

Start Point	En Milo, Pollonia, Milos
Start Time	17:00 on Day 1
Finish Point	Kymata or En Milo, Pollonia, Milos
Finish Time	10:00 on Day 7

Daily Itineraries

Please note that the below daily itineraries are an example of the swims that may take place during the course of your trip, however, actual swim locations and distances will vary according to local weather and sea conditions. Your SwimTrek guides and local boat pilot will determine the most suitable swim locations each day and will communicate the plan with all guests as soon as possible.

Day 1

We meet on the outside terrace at the Apollon Rooms, the sister hotel of the Soultana Rooms, where we hold a welcome meeting featuring a description of the days ahead, followed by a safety briefing. Following this, we go to the private beach situated in front of our accommodation for a short acclimatisation swim, before taking a short walk into Pollonia for dinner at one of the local restaurants.

Day 2

Our first swim starts just out from our hotel in the town of Pollonia. It's a coastal swim and an ideal opening swim. The 60m tall rock stack composed entirely of columnar jointed basalt known as “The Monk” guides our way and is an easy sighting point just off Cape Kalogeros. Once onboard the boat we travel by boat to Papafragas which is one of the island's most impressive collections of caves and tunnels. The caves all have multiple chambers and entrances.

Following a chance to relax and have lunch on the boat, we head out on our first crossing of the week to the volcanic phenomenon of Glaronissia Island with its imposing geology. We finish the swim by going through one of the main island's tunnels.

Day 3

Today we explore the islands located north of Milos. Our first swim takes us to eastern Kimolos where we'll discover a series of rocky outcrops around the islets of Klimatonissia featuring tunnels ideal for swimming through.

In the afternoon, we head to the uninhabited island of Polyaigos whose translation is simply “Many Goats.” The south side of the island and the location of our afternoon swim features many sea surface caves which act as a refuge to a rare population of Mediterranean Monk Seals.

Day 4

The morning begins with swim along the coastline between Sarakiniko and Mandrakia which has undergone large scale erosion over the years. This has led to the formation of about 20 sea caves and arches which are simply spectacular to swim through. The finish of the swim is breathtaking, as we reach the resting place of the Princess of Dubai, one of Greece’s best preserved shipwrecks.

In the afternoon, we head slightly west of Mandrakia to Tourkothalassa Bay and continue our coastal swim towards the fishing village of Firopotamos. The depth of the water fluctuates here, which also varies the colour of the water during our swim. Our finish point at Firopotamos sees us arrive at the villages colourful fishing huts and a local church, before heading back to Pollonia.

Day 5

This morning, we travel by boat around Milos’ mountainous east coast. The morning swim starts at Fyrligkos, as we journey around the coast to Tourkaki Beach. On the way, be sure to look out for the stunning coastline colours and bubbles rising from the sea floor, which is a result of volcanic activity.

After stopping for lunch and a rest, we head towards the beach of Tsigrado for a real swim adventure as we swim through caves, hop across bays and travel underneath sheer rock formations and cliff faces.

Day 6

This morning we set off early to head to the remote south-west tip of Milos. We board the boat at Provatas and motor towards the iconic Kleftico region. This area is renowned for its truly spectacular rock formations, caves and tunnels, as well as its history, which is rich with tales of pirates and stolen treasures. The coastline features an impressive array of stacks, caverns and tunnels.

In the afternoon we travel up the island’s west coast and into Milos Bay where we arrive at the picturesque fishing village of Fourkovouni, which has traditionally been sheltered from the north winds. From here, we swim south down this historic coastline. Once hopping in the boat we head towards the ancient fishing community of Klima with its historic catacombs dating from the 1st-5th Century.

Day 7

After the exertions of the week, we have time for breakfast and a relaxing swim on the beach just outside our accommodation before the trip finishes at 10am.

TRAVEL ADVICE

For more information on any of the following sections please visit the Travel Advice page of our website.

Money, Extra Expenses and Tipping

You should bring extra money with you to cover such items as ferry transfers, dinners and drinks, entertainment, souvenirs, etc. The local currency is the Euro (€). Please note that there are ATMs available on the island, however, there are only two in Pollonia so suggest that you bring some money with you. Please also note that the Greek Ministry of Tourism has introduced an Overnight Stay Tax. This is payable upon arrival at the accommodation at a rate of €0.50 per room, per night.

We believe that tipping is done entirely at your own discretion. If you have been provided with excellent it may be something you wish to do. Your SwimTrek Guides can advise on local norms for service providers like boat crew, waiters or taxis. Nothing is expected for your SwimTrek Guides but many groups like to present something to the Guides at the end of the trip.

Responsible Travel

SwimTrek is conscious of the importance of protecting the world's natural wonders. We are acutely aware of our responsibility to not only take care of the natural environments which we are lucky enough to explore, but also to educate our guests about the importance of conservation efforts and responsible tourism. Citizens of all EU member states, the US, Canada, Australia and New Zealand do not require a visa to enter Greece. Please note that visa regulations are subject to change and we advise that you check your own visa requirements prior to travel.

Travel Insurance
